

NICHOLAS L. PFEIFFER MBA '07

NICHOLAS L. PFEIFFER is a skilled accountant and controller with experience at multiple Fortune 500 companies and major corporations.

Currently, he serves as vice president, controller and chief accounting officer of FMC Corporation, which is a publicly traded diversified chemical company serving agricultural, consumer and industrial markets globally with innovative solutions, applications and marketing-leading products. FMC employs approximately 7,000 people throughout the world and operates its businesses in two segments: FMC Agricultural Solutions and FMC Lithium.

Before being elected vice president at FMC Corporation in 2015, Pfeiffer held various leadership roles at the organization. He joined the corporation in 2004 as a manager and was later named a director of external reporting. In 2012, he was promoted to assistant corporate controller and the following year was named corporate controller and chief accounting officer.

With deep capabilities in SEC regulatory, accounting, reporting and controls, Pfeiffer has previously held accounting positions with Comcast Corporation and KPMG, one of the Big Four auditors. And dedicated to his craft, he is a certified public accountant and a member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and Financial Executives International.

Pfeiffer completed his bachelor's degree at LaSalle University and earned his MBA from the Fox School of Business.